The Style of Business the Klondike Shoe Store Does.

They have fifteen special agents through the Eastern Shoe Market, who do nothing else but buy up stocks of shoes of business houses and factories which cannot keep up with the times, and are sold out by the sheriff, and on any occasion like this, the agents of the Klondike Shoe Store goes there and buys at his own price. That means that the Klondike Shoe Store sells anything in the shoe line at Fifty Cents on the Dollar from its Manufacturing Price.

NATIONAL POTTERS

Held a very Successful and Harmonious Convention and

ASKED NO INCREASE IN WAGES.

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED, AND A WHEELING MAN, J. J. JACKSON, IS VICE PRESIDENT—THE UNION OF THE WESTERN AND EASTERN POTTERS HAS PROVED MOST SUCCESSFUL—THE RESOLUTION ENDORSING MCKINLEY'S ADMINISTRATION PASSED.

The Wheeling delegates to the annual meeting of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, held on Saturday at East Liverpool, returned yesterday morning. They included Mr. J. J. Jackson, the second vice president of the body, and representatives of the two local unions, who were:

No. 6—Thomas J. Duffy, W. T. Nesbitt and E. S. Oleson.

No. 28—T. Willblood, Daniel Moody and William Latousch.

Speaking of the meeting, Mr. Duffy said yesterday afternoon, that it was the most successful and harmonious meeting of potters ever held in America. There was no demand for an increase of wages. Practically the old scale was adopted by the convention and referred to the wage committee. Two advisory boards, one of East Liverpool potters and the other of Trenton potters, were named, and these will have the power to settle all questions that may arise during the ensuing year, in the west and east respectively.

An effort is to be made to have a uniform price list made effective, and this matter will be taken up with all energy by the advisory boards.

The utmost good feeling prevailed, and there was general rejoicing over the union of the eastern and western pottery organizations.

The following new officers were chosen:

President—A. S. Hughes, of East Liverpool.

First vice president—James Reed, of Trenton, N. J.

Second vice president—J. J. Jackson, of Wheeling.

Treasurer—Samuel Early, of East Liverpool.

National secretary—P. J. McKeone, of East Liverpool.

Statistician—A. S. Carnahan, of East Liverpool.

Trustees—M. Adams, A. E. Stevenson and Charles McCauley, of East Liverpool.

The report of President Hughes showed an increase of fifty per cent in membership in the past year. The president was thanked for his very efficient work. Strong resolutions endorsing the course of President McKinley's administration in the conduct of the war were passed with a hurrah, and the convention closed with the spirited singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

THE INITIAL APPEARANCE

Of the Metropolitan Vaudeville Company at Wheeling Park.

Twelve hundred people were in Wheeling Park casino yesterday afternoon to witness portions of the Metropolitan Vaudeville Company's programme, and the company certainly made a decided hit. The management of the park knew that it had secured some of the best people to be had in high class vaudeville, so the hearty reception accorded the company yesterday is not a surprise. The engagement continues every evening this week, with matinee performances on Wednesday and Saturday. If this engagement proves the success it will no doubt be, the park management will feel encouraged to bring other attractions of the same quality, otherwise the days of vaudeville at this amusement resort are numbered in the length of the present engagement.

Only portions of the regular programme were given yesterday. Louis Gront, in finger whistling, was enthusiastically received, getting three recalls. After his appearance on the Casino stage, he whistled to the accompaniment of the orchestra on the Casino veranda.

Miss Gladys Van, solo comic singer, was equally well received by the audience, and she will be one of the favorites of this week's engagement. Miss Gertrude Rutledge, prima donna soprano, late of the Castle Square opera company, possesses a magnetic voice of power and sweetness and captured her hearers completely. On her third recall she appeared shrouded in the Stars and Stripes, and sang "The Star Spangled Banner," amid great enthusiasm.

The usual concert by the Opera House band was rendered.

PRIVATE BEN HONECKER

Writes Interestingly of the Immunes. West Virginians Called "Snake Hunters."

The Intelligencer is in receipt of an interesting letter from Private Ben Honecker, of Company G., of the Fourth United States Immunes, at Camp Lee, Fredericksburg, Va. Ben is an extremely popular Eighth ward boy, and the Ritchie football team will miss his services this fall. Judging by his letter, the members of Captain Franzheim's company are getting along fine. Among other things, the letter says:

"Our second lieutenant has arrived and all the boys are pleased with him. We have, I think, the finest officers in the regiment. All of the boys are getting along fine and having a good time, and not a healthier looking crowd could be found than those composing Company G. The other companies call us West Virginians, 'snake hunters.'"

"On the Fourth of July the entire regiment paraded through Fredericksburg and visited the tomb and monument of George Washington's mother. After the parade we were treated to refreshments by the citizens. During the march seven men were prostrated by the intense heat. The mercury was at 108. The boys are anxiously awaiting their first pay, which will be issued to them some time between now and the sixteenth."

"There are two prisoners in the guard house, on charges of a very serious nature. They will be tried by a general court-martial. It is reported that we will leave here in less than two weeks for Newport News, from there we will go to Porto Rico. The Intelligencer is always eagerly read by the boys, even men from other companies borrowing the paper. Company G. extends its most sincere thanks to the Wheeling Intelligencer for its kindness in sending the paper. We get mail three times a day and nothing makes a fellow feel better than to get a letter from the old town of Wheeling. Friends of the boys should not be a bit backward in sending letters."

"The entire regiment is supplied with Springfield rifles, cartridge belts and shelter tents."

"There was a little kidding about the grub a few days after we got here, but there is no kidding now; the boys seem to be satisfied."

"Temporary 'non-coms' have been appointed in Company G. Private Saltterbach is acting as clerk for Colonel Pettit. We feel proud in having a man from our company called upon to fill such an important position. Nothing has been heard of the Scottish bagpiper who deserted a few days after we got here. Several train loads of troops have passed through here from Camp Alger on their way to the front."

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

The war Thanksgiving Day was generally observed in Wheeling.

The council committee on fire department meets at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

The German Fire Insurance Company has declared a cash dividend of five per cent, payable at the office of the company, on Fourteenth street.

Yesterday morning occurred the death of Nellie, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. Albert Schenk. Mr. Schenk's friends will learn of the sad event with sorrow.

Last night the Wheeling Turnverein held interesting exercises at its hall on North Market street, in celebration of the forty-sixth anniversary of the birth of the organization.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, at the public landing, nine persons were baptized by Rev. J. W. Waters, pastor of Simpson M. E. church (colored). At the regular morning service at the church, six others were baptized. The service was one of thanksgiving in accordance with the President's proclamation.

Passenger Agent J. G. Tomlinson, of the Pan Handle, has just received a handsomely illustrated pamphlet issued by his company, giving much interesting information about Atlantic City and the other seaside resorts reached by the Pennsylvania Lines. The first Atlantic City excursion on this line was on July 7th; the others are scheduled for July 21st and August 4th and 18th.

Thomas Manion, a member of Franzheim's company of Immunes, in camp at Fredericksburg, Virginia, writes to the Intelligencer and asks that a denial of the report that he had deserted from his company be published. The Intelligencer takes pleasure in giving publicity to the correction of a report that did Private Manion injustice. In justice to the young soldier, however, it might be added that his friends did not for a minute credit the rumor.

The Woman's Union Benevolent Society, under whose auspices "Street Car Day" for charity was conducted last week, desires to extend sincere thanks to the ladies who volunteered as chaplains and conductors, to Miss Scharrm, Mr. W. A. Schries, Mr. W. S. Wright, Mr. M. Loftus, Mr. John Loftus, the regular conductors and motormen, the press, Mr. J. B. McCammon, Mrs. Ziegelfelder and Mr. Sam B. Harrison, as well as to all others who contributed to the success of the occasion.

is the selling we are now doing and many are the flattering remarks that exceptionally good dressers are making about our superior lines of tailor-made

Skeleton Clothing.

There are facts about the making of skeleton clothing for mid-summer wear that are not fully appreciated by average buyers. It's the most difficult to make. It's the most stylish and comfortable for hot days—if properly made. No garments are worn under more severe conditions—conditions that make them look like rags in a day or two unless they are made to withstand these hardships. This kind of clothing is our great specialty in summer—our success this year and in past years are proof that our SKELETON CLOTHING is superior to any other product—we've studied it for years and have mastered the art.
